§ 2 Conclusion of contract

A user license to Polyglobe is automatically renewed for 12 months at the going fee unless it is cancelled up to 4 weeks before the end of the previous license period. Our cancellation confirmation serves as receipt of the termination of the user license.

§ 3 Use/Delivery

The online service is available at www.polyglobe.net and can be accessed from your personal user license.

The availability of www.polyglobe.net is subject to the restrictions that typically apply to internet offers, e.g. temporary unavailability due to maintenance or disruption due to force majeure. License fees will not be refunded. In the case of late payments, the operator reserves the right to cease or bar delivery following a previous warning. Place of jurisdiction is Bad Homburg, Germany.

§ 4 Right of use

Authorisation to use www.polyglobe.net is restricted to subscribers of Polyglobe – in the case of legal persons – their employees with a valid subscription including user licenses.

The right of use includes typical internet, browser-based page retrieval for the purpose of on-screen display and print-outs, including browser conventions and temporary caching of the data on a local computer.

Subscribers are not authorised to use the digital or printed content (in whole or in part, beyond that displayed on the screen and the printing of individual information)

- to reproduce and reprint or to save on data storage devices in any form;

- to make it available or retrievable in digital form on its own or on an intranet – even if this occurs within the subscriber's company and/or affiliates' sites;

- to pass it on to third parties (paper, image medium, data storage device, internet, intranet, databases) or to make it publicly or non-publicly accessible (this also includes independent locations, and foreign, parent and subsidiary companies of a company).

User name and password may not be passed on to third parties nor made accessible to them. The restriction does not apply to occasional travel-related use at other sites. Breach of the terms of use for a subscription is subject to liability for damages of twice the amount of one year's license fee. By logging in, these terms of use are regarded as having been accepted. The use of www.polyglobe.net is monitored. Collected data are saved and evaluated for statistical purposes. Important information for consultants/other service providers: The use of Polyglobe requires special agreements. Please contact us for further details.
